TUESDAY JUNE 15.

This will be a great summer for naming girl babies Frankie.

Philadelphia has one saloon to every 29 voters. Janesville has one for every 41.

Whatever may be said of the democratic party, it cannot be said that it has any love for civil service rules.

The way of the lecturer for notoriety is hard. Martin Irons, the communistic Knight of Labor, advertised himself to lecture at Kansas City. The money taken in at the door amounted to three dollars.

The hopes of the Wisconsin democracy were a little bit revived Monday when it was announced from Washington that two democratic postmasters had been appointed—I. T. Carr, of Neilsville, and Wilson D. Lyon, at Elkhorn.

The public generally will feel glad if the presidency of the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City railway company, shall keep Bob Ingersoll so much employed that he wont be able to find time to run about the country abusing the Deity simply for the lucre there is in it.

A truth from the Troy Times: "Few die, and none resign," has been said of office-holders. But Mr. Ellison, our democratic consul at Asuncion, Paraguay, has resigned because he didn't want to die, Asuncion being a very unhealthy place. It must be a tough town if a democratic official can't live there."

It is announced that President A. L. Chapin of Beloit College, has handed in his resignation, to take effect at the close of the present collegiate year. Dr. Chapin has been connected with Beloit College since its organization and has been president nearly all the time since 1847. It is largely due to his untiring energy and personal influence that the college has taken its high rank among educational institutions.

Amid all the mild talk about civil war in Great Britain over the home rule question, it is of practical interest to notice that the proportion of Irish in the queen's army is small and growing smaller. There are now in every 1,000 soldiers, 730 Englishmen, 178 Irishmen, 78 Scotchmen and 14 of other nationality. Eighteen years ago the number of Irishmen was 303 per 1,000, and with the exception of a single year, 1880, the population has since then steadily decreased.

It is not surprising that Ludwig, king of Bavaria, committed suicide. For years he had been cranky, and during the last few years of his life, insane. He was no good as king, and worthless as a citizen. He was full of eccentricities and extravagant notions. About his palace there were furnishings of the most costly and curious kind. Gilt balconies, marble statues set in gold niches, costly Gobelin tapestries, gems of all kinds, stoves ornamented with agates, chandeliers studed with diamonds, and a bed which cost £73,000 are among the features of this palace. The moon was his hobby. In every bed-chamber he owned he had the moon in all its phases, painted in the most sombre colors, and these he worshipped. Any man who would pin his affections on such an inconstant thing as the moon, is a fit subject for a suicide.

Here is a sample of the democratic falsehoods in regard to charging Blaine's friends with working up an opposition against the re-election of Senator Edmunds:

The leaders of the Blaine opposition to the re-election of Senator Edmunds in Vermont are finding out that they are hunting Blaine more than Edmunds. The voters are protesting with a persistency and vigor that is making things uncomfortably warm for the Blaineites, and the speedy collapse of the anti-Edmunds campaign is now considered certain. If Edmunds never does anything more discreditable than to be silent when called upon to sing the praises of the man from Maine he will deserve re-election as often as he is willing to be re-elected.

There never was a word of truth in the statement that through the influence of Blaine an anti-Edmunds boom was being worked up in Vermont. Blaine had nothing to do with it, neither had William Walter Phelps. There was no anti-Edmunds campaign to collapse, except in the imagine of democratic papers. Edmunds will be re-elected and the republican party of Vermont will heartily endorse the election.

The harvest is promising if one can place reliance in the June report of the agricultural bureau at Washington. According to this report, the bureau estimates the condition of winter wheat June 1, about two per cent. below that of May 1, or 92.7, and in 1884, when the largest crop on record was harvested. Bradstreet's doesn't place much reliance on these reports, and intimates that it should not be forgotten that there has been much complaint of drouth since these reports were gathered, and though the latest accounts show that rain has given general relief, there are also reports of some injury by frosts in a part of the spring wheat region. Nevertheless, the reported changes since June 1 can hardly justify a great reduction in the estimate of yield, and the bureau report of the condition at the beginning of the month would indicate a yield of about 450,000,000 bushels. When the bureau is in the guess work, it says that the cotton prospect is quite important, and that in the eastern States of the cotton belt, the acreage is said to be, nevertheless, about 1½ per cent, or 250,000 acres, greater than that of last year. The accounts from Texas show an unusually large increase, the bureau estimate being 107 per cent for that state, and 102 per cent for Mississippi and Louisiana. The considerable increase in these great cotton growing states throws into the shade the decrease in some other states where the yield is comparatively unimportant. The figures warrant expectation of a large crop this year, so far as any expectation can be warranted by the condition of the crop at this date.

The Madison Democrat can't discuss the the tariff question without getting mad. Speaking of Mr. Morrison giving notice that he would call up his tariff bill, the Democrat breaks out in this strain:

If there was any prospect whatever of that bill passing the house, to say nothing of the senate, there might be a little excuse for calling it up at this late day to be discussed during the hot hours at the close of the session. As it is, there is just no use of it at all. The democrats cannot get it through the house. There are nearly forty of the Randall kind of democrats—elected in districts so strongly republican that no other democrat ever attempts to be elected a town constable. They are elected by protectionists and labled democrat and sent to Washington to aid protected millionaires in robbing the whole country. Those fellows have nothing whatever about them democratic except the label. But they can be reelected to the end of their lives, for they fulfill well the work of the protectionists who elect them. It is perfectly silly for Morrison to shut his eyes to this truth, and just as silly for the house to spend any time on that tariff bill; it cannot pass the house, and it is a waste of time to debate it.

Talking about "robbing the whole country," it would be a good thing if other countries were robbed in the same way the United States has been since 1861. There has not been a country under the sun that has prospered like this during the past twenty-five years. Do you call that robbery? There never was a time under free trade when the purchasing power of a dollar was greater than now. Does that look like robbery? There is not a country any where on the face of the earth in which the workingmen get better wages or have more comfortable homes than in the United States. Does that indicate that they are robbed? In 1860, under free trade, this country manufactured eighty million dollars worth of goods. In 1880, under a protective tariff, it manufactured two hundred and sixty-seven million dollars worth. Does the Madison Democrat see in that any evidence that this country is being robbed by millionaires? These are some facts which should be soberly considered before a wholesale charge is made that this country is being robbed.

Emerald Grove.

—The foot bridge at the end of Washington avenue is completed, and will now afford the residents of that portion of the town a crossing which is above high water mark. We must credit W. F. Goodrich for the substantial manner in which the structure is built. There are other walks on our streets which are dangerous, and not fit for human beings to walk on that should be repaired or taken up before some one gets an arm or leg broken.

—The temperature on Sunday and Monday last ought to suit anyone for heat, the mercury standing at 100 degrees in the shade on either day.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, of New York city, are visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

—Mrs. Myron Green, of Fulton, and Mrs. Evan Davis, of Milton, daughters of Mrs. Martha Ransom, spent last week visiting at their old home, two miles east of the grove.

—Quite an excitemedt was created about two miles east of this place on Saturday last by a strange dog which showed signs of hydrophobia dashing into their yard and attacking one of Mr. Donald McLean's boys—who owes his life to their ever faithful "Rover," who assailed the mad canine and gave the boy a chance to escape. Assistance being called, the brute was killed but not until their own dog was bitten so badly he had to share the same fate. During this weather all dogs should be muzzled.

—Hastings wants a ton of butter every week, at full prices. Eggs 9½ cents per dozen. Come and get good prices for produce and a good square deal.

—Tuesday evening, June 22d, the Methodist society give an ice cream and strawberry lawn festival at the residence of Mr. Joseph Stoller's on the De La Mater farm. Come everyone as you are all invited.

—There will be an ice cream social for the benefit of the Congregational society at Mr. Thomas Barlass' on Thursday evening of this week. All invited. Straw berries will also be served if procurable.

—Rev. and Mrs. D. B. Jackson have recently been enjoying a visit from Mrs. Jackson's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frink, of Scranton, Penn. Mr. Frink is general agent of the freight business of the Del. Lack. & Western R. R. and he and his lady are taking a general tour of the west.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clark and Miss Bertha Clark attended the Congregational convention held last week in Delavan. Mr. and Mrs. Cheney sang on several occasions by invitation during the session, and were listened to with pleasure by all who heard them. Revs. D. B. Jackson and W. W. Curtis also attended the same meeting.

Remarkable Experiment in Photography.

A remarkable experiment recently made in photography opens up a trackless and undiscovered domain in the heavens. It beggars the wildest fiction of Verne. Some time ago a camera charged with highly sensitivized paper was directed at a clear spot in the skies, where the most powerful telescope detected nothing. To the surprise of the operator the negative showed several stars of magnitude. This was at first thought due to some spot or defect in the paper, but the experiment was tried again and again with the same result. Some months afterward stars appeared at the very points indicated by the camera.

The explanation is this: Ever since the velocity of light has been measured it has been known that there were myriads of stars whose rays, traveling with unconceivable rapidity since the morning of creation, had not yet reached the earth. Every now and then one of these appears. The camera in the instance I mention had caught the first glimpse of these new-born planets months before their shafts of light had penetrated space strongly enough to reveal them to the telescopic lens.—P. P. Clark, in Photographer's Journal.

By a Man Who Objected to the Prevailing Style of Journalism—Two Other People Receive Bullets, One a Young Lady—Great Excitement and Lynch Talk

KANSAS CITY, June 15.—Dr. Morrison Munford, editor of The Times, was shot and seriously wounded by W. D. Carlile, a lawyer of this city, at 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. The tragedy was the outgrowth of articles recently published in The Times, in which it was stated that Carlile had been unduly intimate with a young lady named Crute, whom he had induced to leave her home and live with his family, and that their relations had not been purely of a platonic nature. At the time the first article was published, Carlile was out of the city, but on his return he wrote a card denying everything that had been alleged against him. Miss Crute also published a card, in which she held that Mr. Carlile had been a friend in whom she had trusted and who had never betrayed that trust.

At 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon Dr. Munford entered a cable car at the corner of Ninth and Main streets, and was soon followed by Carlile, who, approaching him, said: "You have killed my wife," at the same time drawing a revolver and firing at Dr. Munford. The bullet struck Munford in the left side, and ranged across the abdomen for a distance of six or seven inches, and lodged just under the skin. After Carlile had fired at his victim he jumped from the car on the south side and fired four more shots, two of which took effect on occupants of the car. One of the bullets wounded John E. Hale, a bookkeeper, in the cheek. Another hit Miss Jennie Streator, seriously, but not fatally wounding her.

Dr. Munford was removed to Dr. McDonald's office where an examination of his wound showed that the bullet had not penetrated a vital part. Dr. Munford stated that after opening fire on him Carlile jumped from the car. "I tried to get my revolver out," said the doctor, "but it stuck in the holster and by the time I drew it upon him he was in the hands of an officer, and I know if I fired I might hurt some one in the crowd."

The excitement occasioned by the tragedy on the street was intense. Carlile was arrested almost immediately after the shooting, and no sooner was the nature of the occurrance known amongst the crowd than threats of lynching were expressed. If the fact had been well established at once that Carlile fired the first shot it is not unlikely that the police would have had great difficulty in removing him to the police station. Carlile was not locked up in a cell but remained in charge of an officer. He refused to talk.

IN FAVOR OF HOME RULE.

Senator Edmunds Intimates That Vermont Can Walk Alone.

BOSTON, June 15.—A Washington special reported an interview with Senator Edmunds in which he said: "Some opposition has been agitated in sections of the state [Vermont] but I have had nothing to say. * * * I have not undertaken to interfere in the affairs of any other state or people, nor to direct their opinions or actions. * * * The people of Vermont can act just as they feel. I do not desire to influence their action. I shall be a thousand times better satisfied to have them do just as they wish. I do not think, in order to reach an intelligent judgment my fellow citizens of Vermont need to get their cue from the outside. We have heard mutterings of opposition inspired from a direction which placed me on the same issue of good taste, or delicacy if you choose to call it so. * * * I have said nothing and have done nothing. The people of Vermont are amply able to draw the line between one of their own citizens and one who is not."

Raising "Shrews" for Parnell.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the executive committee of the Irish Parliamentary association was held Monday evening at the Hoffman house, the purpose being to take action toward raising funds for the expenses of the forthcoming election campaign in Ireland. Subscriptions amounting to over $10,000 were made by those present. A general subscription list was opened, and meetings will be held two or three times a week until after the parliamentary elections.

The President Going to Berk's County.

READING, Pa., June 15.—Col. Daniel S. Lamont, private secretary to President Cleveland, has written the proprietor of the South Mountain Sunset house, a summer resort near Wernersville, this county, in reference to engaging rooms for the president and his bride for a few days. Col. Lamont states in his letter that the president is desirous of paying a visit to Berk's county. The contemplated visit of the president has created quite a sensation among the local Democratic politicians.

The Turn-Bund.

BOSTON, June 15.—The second day's session of the biennial convention of the North American Turnerbund, now in progress in this city, opened Monday morning in Turn hall, Middlesex street, President Heinrich Huhn occupying the chair. A large part of the morning was devoted to a discussion of the report of the committee on bund affairs. Chicago was selected as the next place of meeting.

A Bad Time for Such Turbulence.

SLIGO, June 15.—Thomas Sexton, M. P., has telegraphed to the mayor of Sligo urging all persons who value Irish national principles to avoid committing any acts of violence or outrage. This message the mayor has caused to be posted throughout the city. The town authorities have offered a reward of £ 100 for the arrest of the persons who damaged the bishop's house.

CHICAGO, June 15.—George Robinson, 11 years old, was charged before Justice Ingersoll Monday with shooting a girl playmate named Stanislaus Dominouski. The children were disputing over playthings, when the boy drew a revolver and fired at the girl, putting her eye out.

Another Cut in Railway Fares.

CHICAGO, June 15.—The Rock Island road Monday reduced to $3 the price of limited first-class tickets to St. Paul, under the rebate system. The St. Paul road met the cut, and made the same figures to Council Bluffs and the junction points in Iowa and Minnesota.

ONLY A CASTAWAY BUTTON,

But It Caused a Bad Blaze and Imperilled Many Lives.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Payne, Peirce & Menzies' mattress and shoddy factory, corner Butler and Twenty-fourth streets was destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. The flames spread with indescribable rapidity to all portions of the factory and there were nineteen girls at work on the second floor who made a desperate fight for life. Many of them dashed down the burning stairway into the street, their garments blazing fiercely and their hair scorched to the scalp. Katie Holdebrand who hurled herself from a window was picked up and placed in a patrol wagon. She was bleeding from several cuts on her face and one of her legs was said to have been broken. Mrs. Vina Chilson and Jennie O'Hare also plunged headlong to the ground and were picked up unconscious. Both are seriously but not fatally injured. A button was the cause of the fire. An operative was feeding rags into a separating machine. A tooth in the machine struck a button and a spark shot into the air and fell into the midst of the combustible material. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

VANCOUVER LAID WASTE.

Terrible Fire in Which Five People Are Cremated—One Thousand Persons Homeless.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., June 15.—Parties arriving from Vancouver state that at 2:30 Monday afternoon the wind rose to a gale and caused fires which were burning on the Canadian Pacific railway reserve to spread toward the city. A house on the extreme west end of the town caught fire and the flames spread rapidly to adjacent buildings. At 4 o'clock the last house in town was in ashes. Having's saw-mill and the Royal City planing-mill, being situated on points of land outside of town, were saved. Five persons are reported dead and several seriously, if not fatally, injured. The total loss is estimated at $100,000; insurance, $10,000. One thousand people are homeless.

GRAIN RECEIVERS RAISE A ROW

BALTIMORE, Md., June 15.—The grain receivers of Baltimore are up in arms against the alleged custom of the railroads entering here, of making rebates or grain tariffs to a few favored firms, thereby giving to those firms enormous advantages over their competitors, and virtually freezing the smaller dealers out of existence. At a meeting of the directors of the corn and flour exchange, held Monday, a memorial was received from the grain receivers, bitterly complaining of the alleged action on the part of the railroad companies in granting rebates on freight to their favorites. The memorial says that no energy or ability can successfully contend with a competitor who is armed with a railroad cut-rate, and asks that the abuse be remedied. A committee was appointed to secure congressional action on the general subject of railway discrimination.

GOOD CAUSE FOR WRATH.

NEEDLES, Cal., June 15.—The Hualapai Indians at Kingman and Peace Springs, A. T., threaten to take the warpath, and the settlers are much alarmed. A few days ago a buck named Pisa, in a fit of jealousy, killed his squaw and seven bucks, and then killed himself. The relatives of the dead men were about to massacre all of Pisa's family, when the whites interfered and saved them. The tribe are enraged at this interference with their custom, and are preparing for an outbreak. They number 500.

John L. Confident of Winning.

BOSTON, June 15.—John L. Sullivan, "champion pugilist of the world," has arrived in town. Only a few personal friends were aware of his coming. Early Monday morning Sullivan, accompanied by Sylvie Geokin, the well-known sculler, went out on the road for a five-mile walk. The champion looked far from well, and every move he made denoted he was in anything but good condition. After walking a mile or two, however, he limbered up and seemed to regain his old-time sprightliness. He said to a United Press reporter that it would soon be time to begin training for his fight with Mitchell; that he expected to be in good condition and would win.

Colliers and Operators Come to Terms.

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., June 15.—At a conference of the miners Amalgamated association and the coal and coke operators of the coke region, held at Everson Monday, an agreement on the wage question was reached, and will date from the 1st of June. The company stores are to be regulated by prices of town and country stores. The prices as regulated are as follows: 60 cents per 100 bushels for drawing coke; 90 cents forking cars of 30,000 pounds; $2.10 forking cars over 30,000 pounds; day laborers 15 cents per hour and driving $2.10 per day.

Making Progress Toward Agreement.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 15.—The afternoon session of the conference committees representing the Amalgamated association and the manufacturers, began promptly at 2 o'clock Monday and continued until 6 in the evening, at which time an adjournment was taken for the day. Representatives of both sides of the question state that the session was very harmonious, and that agreement has been reached on a number of the points involved. The committee have great hope of reaching an amicable settlement.

Several Tramps Killed on the Rail.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 15.—A Memphis, Tenn., special says: The west-bound passenger train on the Kansas City road due here at 8:50 p. m. Monday, was detained five hours on account of the wreck of a freight train on that road. Fifteen cars were entirely demolished, and several tramps, who were stealing a ride, were crushed to death, being mutilated in a most horrible manner. Their names could not be learned. The crew escaped without injury.

Digging Down for a Mine.

A good many years ago George Daly, an old St. Louis man, afterwards killed by the Apaches at Lake valley, N. M., advanced the theory that underlying the broken and "pockety" formation of minerals that is found at Leadville, was a second stratum. He didn't pretend to say how deep—it might be a mile and it might be 1,000 feet, but he claimed that when it was struck the most extraordinary deposite in the world would be found. About a month ago a company was formed to put Daly's theory to the test. They do not propose to sink a shaft any certain number of feet, but are prepared to go down "as far as necessary." There are certain geological indications that they will be successful, and I regard it as altogether the most notable mining experiment that has been made in the last ten years.—Maj. W. H. Wilson.

THE VISITING CITIZEN.

HE IS REQUESTED TO SUPPRESS HIS SOCIAL YEARNINGS,

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—President Cleveland made an appeal, Monday, through the press to callers not to trench too much upon his time. Notwithstanding the announcement heretofore made by the president, reserving Monday in each week for the transaction of such public business as absolutely requires freedom from interruption, he finds that through ignorance of the rule adopted, or from other causes, the time he thus seeks to reserve is to a great extent engrossed by those whose calls are of a personal and social nature, or by the presentation of business which might easily be postponed to another day.

At half past 1 o'clock every Monday and at the same hour on Wednesdays and Fridays of each week, the president will meet all who desire to pay their respects, and he earnestly requests that with the exceptions above specified, the remainder of Mondays and the afternoons of the other days in the week may be allowed him by the public; not for his pleasure, but for the performance of official duty and the transaction of public business.

There has been much criticism of Dr. Sunderland's omission from the White House wedding service of the word "obey." The question has been taken up by all the clergymen locally and it may become a national religious issue. Dr. Sunderland says he is ready to defend this omission against all comers. The doctor is always at his best in controversy. He says that the form of the marriage service adopted by him is the result of long experience and study. The word "obey" was not used in addressing either party. The word "cherish" was used in addressing the groom and "honor" in addressing the bride. "Honor," the doctor says, "includes the fulfillment of every possible duty. The word 'honor' is found in the decalogue—'Honor thy father and thy mother.' The word 'obey' in scripture is used only in referring to bond slaves and slavery." The doctor may preach a sermon on the subject before long.

The president gave Dr. Sunderland, the minister who married him, a more magnificent marriage fee than has been reported. Instead of giving him a $100 greenback, he gave him a $500 draft on New York. The proceeds of this draft Dr. Sunderland has already collected. He has no idea of preserving any part of it as a relic, but will use it as he would any other money, "for doctrine, for reproof and instructions in righteousness."

LAND FORFEITURE TALK

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Shortly after the assembly of the senate Monday, the Northern Pacific forfeiture bill was taken up and the debate extended through the whole day. Dolph said the land proposed to be forfeited consisted of about 2,000,000 acres on that portion of the line not yet constructed. Mitchell offered an amendment forfeiting lands on the completed portion of the Cascade branch. Van Wyck argued for the forfeiture of all the lands that the company had not earned July 4, 1879. Brown said the government had accepted the road in twenty-five mile sections as it was built, and had thus established an equitable estoppie to forfeiture. George got the floor but Plumb offered a resolution asking the postmaster general for information as to the expense and amount of mail transported on inland water routes, and the senate then adjourned.

The house took up the Atlantic & Pacific forfeiture bill on the report of the public lands committee, concurring in the senate amendments, and the report was agreed to. Bills were introduced: to incorporate the United States and Congo Emigration company; providing for the deposit of gold and silver and the issue of certificates therefor; to abolish pension agencies; to apply the treasury surplus to the payment of the bonded debt; granting pensions to persons injured in conflicts with Indians; excluding ex-members from the floor of the house. Resolutions were offered: for the appointment of a committee to arrange for the celebration in 1889 of the centennial of organization of the government, etc., (by Wheeler of Alabama) asking the appointment of a committee to examine a speech made by himself some days ago, and to expunge therefrom any unjust reflections on Edwin M. Stanton or Abraham Lincoln; calling on the secretary of the interior for complete information regarding public lands held by aliens. District of Columbia business was then taken up, and a bill passed prohibiting the selling of pools in the District. On a bill to incorporate a cable railway a warm discussion took place, and, without action, the house adjourned.

AWKWARD AND IMPRACTICABLE.

Gen. Gilmore's Reflection on House Hydraulic Engineers.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—A letter from Gen. Gilmore, chief of engineers, was sent to the senate Monday, in which that officer says the provision appropriating $2,250,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river below Cairo is left in a most awkward and impracticable shape; that it is neither durable nor expedient that the plan of the commission should be further tested as the house bill directs, as the plan has been tested already with amply successful results. The letter requests that the duties of the commission be more officially stated and Gen. Gilmore takes occasion to declare it to be inevitable that the effect of a new outlet will be to reduce the velocity of the stream below it, resulting in shoaling, and in ultimate disaster to the regions above. He refers to the Lake Borgne outlet scheme as visionary and does not believe any respectable hydraulic engineer can be found who will advocate it.

A Plea for Specific Duties.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Acting-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild, Monday, sent to Mr. Morrison, chairman of the ways and means committee, a letter urging legislation to substitute schedules of specific duties for the advalorem duties imposed by existing laws on silk and silk goods, cotton embroideries and laces, and kid leather gloves. The letter explains that the secretary's purpose in the communication is simply to advise a change in the method of levying the duties on these goods rather than any change in the amount of taxation on them. The acting-secretary says the change will prevent the trouble over appraisements of such goods at New York, and diminish cost of collection.

A Change of Inauguration Day.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Mr. Hoar in the senate Monday submitted a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to provide that the term of office of the president and of the Fiftieth congress shall continue until the last Tuesday of April 1889, at noon; the senators whose existing term would otherwise expire on March 4, 1889, shall continue in office until noon of the last Tuesday in April, succeeding such expiration, and that the last Tuesday of April at noon shall thereafter be submitted for the 4th of March as the commencement and termination of the official term of the president, senators and representatives in congress.

Will Edgerton Resign.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Rumors reached here Monday from Indiana to the effect that Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton intended resigning. Inquiries were made of Mr. Edgerton's conferees and of his Indiana friends in congress but no information could be obtained on the subject. Mr. Edgerton left the city for his home at Fort Wayne, Ind., on Friday night last. In conversation with acquaintances immediately prior to his departure he spoke very freely about the action of certain Democrats in the house in trying to cripple civil service reform, and referred to the matter in very strong and condemnatory language.

Clendennin's Nomination.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—The nomination Monday by the president of Henry W. Clendennin to be postmaster at Springfield, Ill., is explained by the fact that the present postmaster, Paul Selby, has forwarded his resignation to Senator Cullom, to take effect June 30. This relieves Mr. Clendennin from the embarrassment attending his first nomination to that position, which has been held up in committee because Mr. Selby's term had not expired nor had he resigned.

A Live Prince at the Capital.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Prince Leopold, grandson of Dom Pedro, emperor of Brazil, accompanied by five of his fellow-officers of the Brazilian war vessel Almiranto Borrozo, arrived here at 10:47 Monday night. They are staying at the Arlington hotel. They will remain in Washington several days. The prince will be invited to the president's reception.

Will Visit Hill and Tilden.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Before President Cleveland goes to the Adirondacks, in July, he will be the guest of Samuel J. Tilden, at Greystone, for two days. While in Albany he will be the guest of Governor Hill, at the executive mansion. This would seem to set at rest the story of unfriendly relations between the two gentlemen.

All the Programmes Are Speculative.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 15.—Col. Lamont, when asked about the correctness of various published programmes purporting to outline the president's summer vacation, said the president had as yet made no plans whatever for the summer.

Vacant Place in the Patent Office.

CHICAGO, June 15.—An attempt Monday to save the life of Officer Nels Hansen, one of the victims of the Haymarket riot, by the transfusion of blood into his body, proved of no avail. On Saturday last his left leg was amputated, and it was decided that the strain on his enfeebled system was too great. Erich W. Egerlis, a brother-in-law of Hansen, offered himself as the subject from whom the life fluid should be drawn. An incision was made in the femoral artery of the left arm and four ounces of blood was allowed to rush out. Hansen kept up a low muttering while the surgeon made an incision into his right arm and the process of transfusing his brother-in-law's blood into the patient was in progress. The pulse-beats and breathing increased in frequency as it progressed, the pulse beating stronger at the same time. A visible change came to the surface color; the pallor of death which seemed to enshroud him gave way to a slight pink tinge, but it was very faint, and may have had its origin in the sanguine watchers' hopes. The operation was successfully performed, but availed nothing, as the patient succumbed to his delirium and died at 3:15 in the afternoon.

CINCINNATI, June 15.—The superior court in general term, Monday, Judge Force presiding, and Judges Rock and Harman on either hand, considered the knotty problem involved in the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad pool agreement case. Upon the filing of an amended prayer the court said it could attempt a solution of the difficulty at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. At 3:30 p. m. the court resumed the bench and at once proceeded to the decision. The judges took a view of the case distinctly their own and not suggested by argument.

They said in substance that the Huntington people knew of the restrictions on the stock placed in the hands of the trustees at the time they purchased, and the mandatory injunction to compel the trustees to vote the stock as ordered by the Huntington people was therefore refused until the final termination of the suit. This will be some time in the future, and leaves the majority of the stock voted in the hands of the trustees for the election, and is a triumph for the trustees, who will choose the director for a year at least. This was a complete knock-out against Huntington's people and they and their attorneys feel quite blue in consequence.

The Yankees Are Too Cute for Them.

BOSTON, June 15.—A Halifax special to The Advertiser says that the government steamer Newfield arrived Sunday after repairing the cable to the Magdalen islands, and reports that many of the fifteen American mackerel schooners sighted between Country and Beaver Harbors are so disguised as Nova Scotians that it is difficult to detect their nationality. Several American seiners are reported to be lurking along the coast between Lockport and Pubnico. The captains and crews of scores of Gloucester vessels belong around that coast, and there is every facility for getting bait and supplies. One of these captains promised the collector of customs to leave within twenty-four hours, but during that time he got a supply of bait and shipped several men. The fresh fish trade with the states is rapidly increasing.

Mexican Smugglers Captured.

EL PASO, TEX., June 15.—The collector of customs for this district received information of an important capture, Sunday, near Deming, N. M., a band of Mexican smugglers were overhauled and surrounded. They had a dozen pack mules loaded with goods and were driving sixty-four head of cattle and twenty horses, all of which had been smuggled across by a circuitous route which has been known by Mexicans for many years. Five Mexicans were arrested and lodged in jail. They are under the lead of Capt. Ignacio Istrano, formerly an army officer.

Not Paralleling the "Nickel Plate."

NEW YORK, June 15.—President Samuel Sloan, of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, has denied the report published in a morning paper that his company is surveying a line to parallel the Nickel Plate line into Chicago. Mr. Sloan said that with the present connections of the Lackawanna road no new lines were necessary.

Lived for Over a Century.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, June 15.—Monday at Berlin, this county, Robert Rose died, aged 101 years. He served in the war of 1812, and was hearty and active until a short time before his death.

Our Worst Enemies.

Next to our vices, are our follies. Among them is the imperilling of future bodily comfort, and the average tenure of life to which persons of moderately good constitutions are presumably entitled, by imprudence in eating and drinking, and the reckless use of drugs. It is one of the happy capabilities of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters that it can repair damage thus inflicted. When the blood is thin and watery, the bowels out of order, the complexion and tongue both giving evidence of biliousness, there is a necessity for repairs upon the human tenement obvious enough to startle its possessor. A course of the bitters, the abandonment of "drug ging" for relief, and a common sense diet and mode of life—these will speedily produce a change for the better. What quinine for fever and ague, and mercury for biliousness and constipation won't do, the bitters will. It also relieves rheumatism and neuralgia, and inactivity of the kidneys.

The reason why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it. Prentice & Evenson, druggists, O. P. O.

Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Weak Back or any urinary complaint quickly cured. They purify the blood, regulate the bowels, and act directly on the diseased parts. Every bottle guaranteed. INUNDATION AT GALVESTON.

GALVESTON, June 15.—A violent gale set in about sundown Sunday evening from the east and increased in fury until 4 o'clock Monday morning, when it was at its height, registering fifty miles per hour. At the same time torrents of rain fell, and at daybreak the water was rising rapidly all around the city. The shifting of the wind to the northeast at 9 o'clock saved the city from being completely inundated. The water of the bay had at this time risen so as to submerge the wharves and the lower ends of the streets. All means of communication with the main land was cut off until afternoon. The Missouri Pacific was the first road to get a train out. Two miles of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad track approaching the long bridge over the bay is washed away, and it will take a week to repair the damage. The road will use the Missouri Pacific track meanwhile.

The damage on the island, on the gulf side, amounts to many thousand dollars. The track of the Gulf City street railway is washed away and a number of bath houses on the beach were carried away. Shipping is not seriously damaged. Large vessels took the precaution to weigh anchor and stand out to sea and rode out the storm in safety.

Something Remarkable at a Funeral.

NEW ORLEANS, June 15.—The funeral of the Rev. Dr. J. K. Gutbriem, rabbi Temple Sinai, took place Monday afternoon. The funeral oration was delivered by Rev. Dr. Palmer, of the First Presbyterian Church, and at the grave the Rev. Father Hubert, of the Society of Jesus, extolled the philanthrophy and ability of the deceased rabbi. The procession was one of the largest ever seen in this city, the line of carriages extending over a mile.

LIFE AMONG THE CELESTIALS.

Curious Sights on the Streets of China—A Very Patient People.

Who and what are these melancholy mortals who are meandering along covered with sheepskins? They are what, when you see them in Fleet street, you call "sandwich men." They are exhibiting the wares purchasable at this clothier's shop on our left. Instead of carrying advertisement-boards, and wandering up and down the street, a layer of lean mortality between two slices of wood, they wear upon their own backs the very goods which you are respectfully invited to inspect and to buy. Do not imagine that a Chinaman's mind feels any qualms at the thought that these garments have been for weeks upon the back of one of the unwashed. He is troubled by no such unpleasant reflections. But he would no doubt drive a harder bargain, on the plea that they had been already much worn.

These sheepskins are very highly valued in winter by the country people. If you were relating to an agricultural audience in the south of China, and in the north also to townspeople, the suffering of the persecuted saints of old, it would never do to tell them that "they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins." You would err as much as the Moravian missionaries did who first preached of the fires of hell to the Greenlanders. Those arctic folk were immensely pleased with the prospect of going there, and the missionaries were naturally very much shocked at the result of their own preaching. And so to the Chinese mind the wandering about in sheepskins and goatskins does not at all imply that they were "destitute, afflicted, tormented." They would very much like to be persecuted to that degree.

The Chinaman is a wonderful creature for enduring endless nuisances, regarding them as things that are and have been, and therefore must still be. We could scarcely have a better illustration of that last remark than this stage, which has been thrown right across the main thoroughfare. We must either find our way round by a side street, or creep under the stage as best we can. Fancy what it would be for a band of itinerant actors to erect a theatre in Cheapside, compelling all the traffic to turn aside for a whole day, and then consider that the street we are in bears about the same relation to the city of Amoy as Cheapside does to the city of London. Yet the people do not complain. It is probable that not one in a hundred who turn aside because the road is blocked thinks that such a nuisance ought not be allowed.

It is much more likely that the inhabitants of the street are objects of envy because the theatre is brought to their very doors. Some shopkeeper in the street has invited the actors at his own expense, and his neighbors are much obliged to him for giving them an opportunity to see the play, and of hearing the drums beat, the bells ring, the cymbals clash and the actors howl and screech, without the trouble of leaving their shop doors. The entertaining sights are so numerous that to describe all that strikes the newcomer as fantastic would take a volume. You may see a woman deliberately washing her long black hair in a wooden bowl, combing it out and doing it up in public, without so much as a thought that any one would think she should do it indoors. Or, maybe, it is a man in scanty garb, sitting on the threshold of his shop, washing his long legs in a basin of hot water.

Sometimes you may come across a conjurer performing at one of the tiny clear spaces where the road widens for a few yards. Close by this spot I once met a man who seemed to have a knife broken off short in the top of his skull, and the blood apparently running down upon his clothes. The people stood aside with what I thought was a shocked aspect as he walked solemnly on, looking to neither right nor left, and it proved to be only a famous conjurer going through one of his most remakable performances. Occasionally you may happen upon one of the eccentric customs of idolatry and see a new house concentrated by the presence of the black face idol.

By the way, while we are just finishing our journey, I will tell you a curious fact about Chinamen and foreign pictures. The Chinamen who see a foreign picture for the first time looks at it with the eyes of a grown up child. When I had discovered this fact I tested the truth of it many times by showing pictures to intelligent friends. A fine sketch of the interior of a Turkish man-of-war, four guns served by about ten men, and the admiral standing in the foreground with his hand resting upon his sword, was put down as "mountains;" and a large and elaborate picture of the funeral of M. Thiers proceeding through the streets of Paris was said to be "a ship at sea." This is an interesting fact for psychologists. —"Every-Day Life in China."

LUDWIG'S TRAGIC EXIT.

And Drags to Death His Faithful Medical Attendant, Who Tries to Rescue Him—His Subjects in Mourning Over the Sad Event—Another Lunatic Succeeds to the Throne.

MUNICH, June 15.—Ludwig, who was recently deposed from the Bavarian throne, committed suicide at about 7 o'clock Sunday evening. He had gone out for a promenade in the park of the Berg castle, accompanied by Dr. Gudden, his physician. The king suddenly threw himself into Starnberg lake. The following proclamation has been issued in reference to the sad event:

"After the king's arrival in Castle Berg he quietly submitted to medical treatment. He took a walk Sunday evening at 6:45 in the park with his medical advisor, Dr. Von Gudden, from which his majesty and Dr. Von Gudden had up to a late hour not returned. On the park and the shore of the lake having been searched, his majesty and Dr. Von Gudden were found in the lake. Both gave faint signs of life, but all attempts to restore animation was fruitless."

As nobody witnessed the sad scene nothing authentic is known of the event except that the king and Dr. Gudden took a walk in the park of Castle Berg Sunday evening, and that when they did not return a search was made for them and they were found drowned in the lake. There must have been a terrible struggle between the king, who was evidently determined to end his life, and Dr. Gudden, who tried to save the life of his monarch at the risk of his own. Dr. Gudden's face was terribly scratched, and on the bottom of the lake there were also found traces of a violent struggle. The king's coat and vest were found on the shore. It is very peculiar that no guards or attendants followed the king, and that there were none near him when he jumped or fell into the lake. This is still more surprise, in view of the fact that the physicians had declared the king's insanity to be of the most dangerous kind. This mystery needs thorough investigation. The king was very quiet Sunday, and after having dinner with the doctor he left the castle for his last walk.

Dr. B. von Gudden was a physician of very high standing in the German medical world, and for many years one of the highest medical officers in the service of the government.

At 10 o'clock Monday morning the generals of the Bavarian army met and took the oath of allegiance to King Ludwig's brother Otto, who at once assumes the title of king, under the name of Otto I. He is three years younger than Ludwig was, having been born April 27, 1848. Otto, however, will be simply nominally king, as he is mentally incapable of government, and Prince Luitpold, his uncle, will remain regent. The generals of the army have taken the oath of allegiance to Prince Luitpold as regent.

The medical commission which examined the late King Ludwig, report that he had ordered that the members of the ministerial deputation headed by Count Holstein, who called upon him to procure his consent to a regency to be flogged until they bled and then have their eyes extracted.

Before his death the belief was spreading among the common people of Bavaria that the king's deposition was illegal. The people did not believe he was insane. Precautions had been taken to prevent the populace from rising to restore the king. King Ludwig's suicide has cast a deep gloom over Munich. The people were deeply attached to the king, and evidences are every where manifest of the popular sorrow caused by his tragic death.

The watch worn by King Ludwig, and which was on his person when his corpse was recovered from the lake, had stopped at 6:54 o'clock Sunday evening. Dr. Mueller and Hubert, the king's steward, had the bodies of Ludwig and Dr. Gudden conveyed to the Berg castle and placed on beds. Although there was neither any perceptible respiration nor pulse movement in either body, Dr. Mueller and his assistants of the ambulance corps attempted to restore animation in both, and only ceased their efforts in resuscitation at midnight, when life was pronounced extinct in both cases.

The full story of Ludwig's recent eccentricities would be generally regarded as incredible. He had a mania for avoiding the daylight and for turning day into night. He often summoned great musicians to the palace at late hours by post-horses to gratify the royal wish to hear a single air. He frequently had statesmen aroused in the small hours and sent to him to assist him to play a billiard game. He would drive at night in a chariot or on horseback with flying speed, accompanied by mounted torch-bearers, far up into the mountains, in imitation of Burger's "Lenore" and of Goethe' "Erl Koenig."

Once, while engaged in one of these wild night mountain chases, he fell, with his horse, down a deep chasm. He was badly hurt, and his injury aggravated his mental ailment, but his physicians were obliged to approach him disguised as lackeys or as soldiers.

A Painful Impression at Berlin.

BERLIN, June 15.—The sad fate of King Ludwig of Bavaria, has created a painful impression in Berlin and Vienna. Emperor William is deeply grieved, and has ordered the German court to go into mourning. The minor German courts will also observe a period of mourning for the dead king.

That Very Comprehensive Philadelphia Syndicate.

NEW YORK, June 15.—At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Broadway & Seventh Avenue Railroad company, Monday, a board of directors in the interest of what is known as the "Philadelphia syndicate," were elected. The directors then elected Henry Thompson president, and Thomas Ryerson secretary and treasurer. There was no contest, as the present managers of the property preferred to let a "new crowd" take hold and do the fighting in the courts that will have to be gone through before the company's right to the Broadway Surface railroad franchise is determined. So far as the present control of the latter road is concerned, however, the Philadelphia men have obtained it.

Want Worsteds and Woolens Equalized.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—At a meeting of the Wool Merchants association of Philadelphia held Monday this resolution was adopted: "That while the Philadelphia Wool Merchants association is unalterably opposed to any change in the tariff on wool unless it be for the restoration of the acts of 1867, we would urge the importance of immediately correcting a manifest error in the construction of the present tariff act relating to worsted goods. We therefore respectfully ask for the passage of the amendment to the oleomargarine bill offered by Senator Davis, which proposes to put worsted on the same basis as woolens."

They Will Surely Find You.

Dr. W. N. Bullad, in a paper lately read before the Massachusetts Medical society, gives a detailed analysis of the various symptoms of tea-poisoning, obtained from the study of a large series of cases. He arrives at the important conclusions that the action of tea is cumulative, and is more pronounced on the young and those in a depressed physical condition, although persons otherwise healthy not infrequently show poisonous symptoms: that, as a rule, in the class of people examined by him, chiefly adult women, the average amount needed to cause poisonous symptoms was a little less than five cups daily: and than chronic tea-poisoning is a frequent affection, whose most common symptoms are loss of appetite, dyspepsia, palpitation, headache, vomiting and nausea, combined with nervousness, and hysterical and neuralgic affections, frequently accompanied by constipation and pain in the region of the heart.—Medical Journal.

Preservation of French Vineyards.

In order to prevent the vines freezing in the great French vineyards during exceptionally cold weather it is customary to create large clouds of smoke around the vines, so as to prevent radiation as much as possible. This is now done automatically by the aid of electricity. In the center of the vineyard is placed a thermometer. When the mercury in this falls to two degrees above the freezing point, the mercury closes the circuit through a small galvanic battery. The current starts an ignition apparatus, which sets fire to the heaps of combustibles, so that if a sudden frost comes the whole vineyard in a few seconds is enveloped in a cloud of smoke.—Paris Letter.

Glass-Lined Wrought-Iron Pipes.

Glass-lined wrought-iron pipes are now successfully made so as to be practically homogeneous, will withstand any alternation of heat or cold from 212 degrees Fahrenheit to 32 degrees and lower, can not, when fixed, be broken by any accidental mechanical violence, are hermetically sealed in their entirety, and so seem specially adapted to the requirements of breweries, laboratories, chemical manufactories, large milk establishments, and numerous other applications in the arts. For all hygienic purposes they are immeasurably superior to the tin-lined lead pipes, which, until now, have been recommended for the conveyance of water, and especially good soft water, in its prestine state of purity, from its source to its delivery.—Chicago News.

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters

ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

THE FESTIVE LAWN MOWER.

[From the New Haven News.]

Sweet is the music of the mower on the lawn,
Ah, yes, I dearly love it,
But if I had to shove it
I know that I'd regret the fact that I was ever born.

Brieflets.

—Remember the Dairymaids' Festival at the Baptist church to-night.

—The Congregational church has been selected as the place for the High School graduating exercises.

—Janesville City Lodge No. 99, I. O. O. F., occupies Odd Fellows' hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

—The Gypties arrived and went into camp this morning about 10 o'clock, at the social rooms of the Baptist church.

—The funeral of Mrs. Louise Lowber will take place to-morrow morning at ten o'clock from her late residence in the first ward.

—Western Star Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M., assembles in regular semi-monthly communication this evening at Masonic hall.

—An adjourned annual meeting of the Congregational church and society will be held this evening at half past seven in the chapel.

—The Lowell Literary Club will continue the study of Hamlet, Tuesday evening, June 15, at the home of Mr. James Harris, on Jackson Street.

—Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, assemble in regular weekly session this evening, at Castle hall, Jeffris block, West Milwaukee street.

—One of our successful business men said the other day that "the best advertiser was the man who could practically put his show window into the paper."

—The good temperance people are having rather a moist time at Pope Springs to-day, pinicing. A large number of people have gone up to spend the evening.

—The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Congregational church will be held Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock in the church parlor. A full attendance is desired. Pledges for the year can be paid to the treasurer, Mrs. Grilling.

—Commencing next Saturday, the short time limited for St. Paul and Minneapolis, north bound, will stop at Afton and make connection with short train for Janesville. This will enable passengers to leave Chicago at 7:30 p. m. and arrive at Janesville at 10:51.

—Grand Patriarch S. B. Kenyon, accompanied by Patriarchs C. P. Winslow, James A. Fathers, J. F. Hutchinson, L. M. Nelson and Will Scofield, visited Encampment No. 5, I. O. O. F. at Whitewater last evening and assisted in the degree work. They returned this morning, having enjoyed a pleasant visit.

—Galbraith Brothers, importers of Clydesdale horses and Shetland ponies, received word to-day that nine fine Clydes and nine ponies were landed at Montreal yesterday, consigned to them at Janesville, Wis. The horses are expected to reach this city on Thursday. This is the first lot of the season, they having cost two other shipments at sea.

—The work of laying the track for the Janesville street railway will be commenced to-morrow; the contract for laying the same was let this morning to Mr. Murray, of Milwaukee, an old contractor in this line of business. The material for the road is now in the city, and the entire work will be pushed until the road is completed.

—There is considerable opposition among the people regarding the action of the common council last evening, ordering that the street railway occupy the extreme north side of the bridge, instead of the center, or near the center. It is said that measures will be taken to have the order changed placing the track as near the center as possible. Time will tell.

—At the "Evangeline" entertainment Friday evening, W. T. Thiele will execute on the cornet the following selections: Russian Fantasia and "Meditation." Mr. Charles Shuman, violin soloist, Sixth air Varie, op. 12 DeBeriot Le Carnival De Venise, op. 118, Dancla. The reading as marked on the programme will consist of short extracts, descriptive of tableaux, taking very little time.

—It looks to a man up a tree as though the action of the council last night in ordering the street railway to cross the bridge on the north side, was done with a view to accommodate the banks at either end of the structure and the business block in the center. There's nothing like being accommodating. The road is liable to cross near the center, where it by rights ought to.

—The funeral of David E. Ambrose was held this afternoon from his late home in the first ward. The Rev. Thomas Walker officiated. W. H. Sargent Post, No. 20, G. A. R. turned out in a body and the pall bearers who were all Grand Aarmy men were A. M. Pratt, W. V. Morrison, J. Howland, A. Bintliff, N. Gillispie and L. H. Leo. The remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

—It is thought that the person or persons who made an attempt at entering the house of S. L. James also began operations at G. M. Hanchett's residence but were frightened away by the barking of a dog. A man was also seen creeping stealthily along near other houses in the same locality, fully an hour after midnight, and there is a strong probability that he would be very cordially received by the officers, could they only put their hands on him.

—The Oshkosh Northwestern has the following item of interest to Janesville people: "Robert Brand is now at work upon a yacht for Judge Cassoday, of Madison, one of the associate justices of the supreme court. The boat is to have a nineteen foot keel, overhanging stern, and will be designed for speed as well as safety and comfort. The work of putting on the planking has already been commenced, and in a few weeks the hull will be ready to be shipped to Madison, when the yacht will be rigged and fitted with her sails. She will be placed upon Lake Mendota, and it is expected that if she is properly handled she will become noted in that part of the state for speed. Judge Cassoday is expected up here in a short time to inspect the craft."

GRADUATION DAY.

The commencement exercises at the Wisconsin School for the Blind took place last evening in the assembly room of the school, which was well filled, the visitors being those who take a special interest in the work of that institution.

The exercises were opened by the Pilgrim chorus and march from Wagner's "Tannhauser," played in most admirable manner by the orchestra under the leadership of Mrs. Jones. Then followed a prayer by the Rev. W. F. Brown, of the Presbyterian church, after which the programme, as published in the Gazette on Saturday, was rendered. Without a single exception, the programme was a good one. The essays were a credit to those taking part, and while a few may have been somewhat better than others both in delivery and composition, yet they were all good in the strictest sense of the word, so that comparisons would be out of place.

The musical part of the programme was excellent. It is a fact that the musical training of the scholars, like that in other branches, is so thorough in the school, that a selection poorly rendered is rarely if ever heard on commencement day or at any musicales given there. Some of the pieces given last night were exceptionally good, and were heartily enjoyed by the audience.

After the close of the programme diplomas were presented to Anna H. Carter, Laura D. Engleson, Frederic A. Klemp, Ari May Lyon, Mary A. Shanahan, Willard Elmer Tubbs, Clyde Arthur Whitney, and Libbie D. Wood, who composed the graduating class. The diplomas were presented by Mr. Lewis A. Proctor, on behalf of the state board of supervision, and performed that part of the exercises in a most befitting manner. The new diplomas recently executed in Milwaukee for the Wisconsin School for the Blind, are models of typographical and the engravers art. They are among the finest specimens of printing and engraving ever used by an educational institution in the state.

The educational work of Wisconsin School for the Blind, under the superintendency of Mrs. Little, has been very successful during the past year. The deep interest in that work which began years ago still continues with more zeal than ever, and it may be truly said that among all the schools for the blind in the west there is not one which is more thorough in its work of educational training than the Wisconsin School for the Blind.

Personal.

—Mrs. Helen M. Webster, South Jackson street, is in Chicago visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Jackson.

—Mr. James Horn, of La Crosse, a brother of Conductor Levi Horn, of this city, died yesterday. The remains were brought to this city this morning. Mr. Horn had many friends in this city all of whom will be pained to learn of his death.

—F. P. Stannard was one of the contestants in the annual shoot of the Lake City Gun club held at Madison. He carried off two first prizes. One was an elegant silver trophy, the shoot being at ten singles and three pairs, Peoria blackbirds, with thirty-five entries, while the other was a box of Havana cigars for the best average score of the day.

—Captain Addie Hodge and Lieutenant Eva Mordell, conducted their last meeting at the Salvation Army barracks in this city last evening. To-day they went to Aurora and from there they will be sent to a new station. During the evening the captain was presented with a beautiful guitar by the converts, the lieutenant receiving a handsome watch. While the meeting was in progress several ladies became overcome with the heat and fainted.

Evansville.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

EVANSVILLE, June 13.—Last night we had a very fine shower and in fact some of the time it literally poured down and this morning the ground appears well soaked. The dry weather of the past few days—for it is only about a week since a fine shower visited this locality—started some of the croakers with the hue and cry that corn and oats were being damaged by the drought, so the rain of last night may stop them for a while until some new surmised calamity overtakes their mental vision.

Commencement exercises of the seminary and graded school takes place this week. That of the seminary will be on the lawn of the seminary grounds under shade of stately trees which only a few years ago were planted out we think by D. Y. Kilgore. There are to be eleven in the graduating class this year and great preparations have been made for a pleasant time next Tuesday. The graded school will graduate three this year and the exercises will be as usual in Magee's hall. Our citizens take just pride in the schools of our village.

—The Band boys concluded to disband a short time since but the better majority of them called a meeting to reorganize on the stock plan so the band will own the instruments instead of members. In some respects this is a good move.

—Mr. Daniel Johnson has placed his village property in the hands of a real estate agent and he is negotiating for a lot near Dr. Evan's now residence whereon to build a house not so large but in refined taste and more suited to one in the down hill side of the fifties. Mr. Johnson has been quite a traveler but thinks Evansville about as good a place to live in as he can find.

—Some of our citizens the past winter made investments in the northern iron mines of Superior, and this week they, with others, will take a trip to the mines. The company anticipate a pleasant time, whether it may turn out for business or pleasure.

—Two of our druggists deposited the fee for druggists' license, but our village board returned the money; so, whatever others may think, our village does not believe it a wise move to sell indulgences at so cheap a rate.

—Childrens' day was observed by all the churches Sunday, and the Baptist society had their church very nicely decorated.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 74 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 88 degrees above zero. Cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 66 and 78 degrees above zero.

WASHINGTON, June 15—Signal service predictions: For Michigan and Wisconsin Local rains, slightly warmer, northern winds becoming variable.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is not extolled as a "cure-all", but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific in those chronic weaknesses peculiar to women.

Attention Forresters.

SCARED AWAY.

An Attempt to Burglarize the Home of S. L. James in the Fourth Ward Fails.

This hot weather, when windows are left wide open, furnishes great inducements to sneak thieves. There are few houses that could not be entered easily, but all through the spring the midnight visitors have kept very quiet. They were around last night, however, and in the fourth ward left numerous marks of their visit.

The only house where an attempt to enter was made was that of S. L. James on South Jackson street. Mr. James was awakened soon after midnight by what he thought was some one trying to open a door in the sitting room. After listening a moment he arose and started to investigate. He found that the screen removed from a side window, and the sash pushed up about two feet. Near the window stood a large table upon which Mr. James' assessor's blanks and other official papers had been left the night before, and most of these papers were missing. Nothing else had been disturbed, although two half-burnt matches lay on the carpet in the center of the room, as though the burglar had lighted them while looking around. On going inside, the missing window screen was found standing up against the house. Tracks of men's boots were to be seen on the ground and on the freshly-painted porch, while the papers that had been on the table were found scattered around the open window. Nothing was taken, and some think that the burglar was frightened away without making an entrance into the house. The papers could have been reached from the outside, and the matches might have been carelessly tossed through the window.

A Tax Payer.

The Recorder of this morning contains a very sensible and practical communication signed "A Tax Payer", on the subject of taxation relating to the proposed Evansville cut off. The writer takes for example his own house and lot, assessed at $500, and estimates that his proportion of increased taxation necessary to purchase the right of way and secure the road would amount in eight years to $6.64, and urges the enterprise as beneficial in many ways. The Gazette would respectfully suggest that on a 11-10 per cent or eleven mill city tax we have paid as a city during the past eight years, a much larger bonded debt than the Evansville "cut off" demands, and this without the aid of a liberal license fee. It is safe to assume that the same ratio of taxation during the next eight years, will pay the right of way bill without any increase of taxes; and if the license money is kept in its legitimate channel, the city will have a sinking fund when the last $5,000 bond is paid in 1894, sufficient to make a liberal payment on the water works. The city is now receiving in round numbers about $8,000 per year license money, with a reasonable prospect that it will increase rather than diminish. $6,000 of this fund appropriated to water works would pay for the plant in twenty years. The city of Oshkosh with an assessed valuation of $8,000,000, pays a city tax of two and two-fifths per cent. The argument of increased taxation for Janesville is too weak to bear investigation and ought not to be mentioned in connection with the city improvements.

WATER WORKS.

Regular Meeting of the Board of Water Commissioners.

They Discuss the Power Question—It is now Direct Pressure or Reservoir.

The board of water commissioners held a regular meeting last evening at which all the members were present except Commissioner Wray.

The committee appointed to ascertain the cost of a sufficient supply of water power, and the cost of the same, made a report, the report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The committee reported that 1,500 inches of water could be purchased at the lower power, with a pumping house site located between the woolen and the cotton mills; that an additional 3,000 inches of water could be leased, to be used in case of fire only.

Also that the site of the old Bower City mills, in the rear of the postoffice building, including 555 inches of water, could be purchased of Mr. Jeffris, and that Captain Norcross would sell 500 inches to be drawn at the same location.

The discussions which followed disclosed the fact that in case water power was adopted, at least 4,000 inches of water would be necessary, therefore the idea of running by water power was considered out of the question, and it was dropped.

Civil Engineer Ruger was present and gave the commissioners some very interesting points.

Commissioner Denniston moved that Captain Ruger be employed to make an estimate of the cost of the two systems—a reservoir and the direct pressure.

Commissioner Eldredge moved to amend by confining the estimate to direct pressure only; stating that Captain Ruger had already made an estimate of the cost of a reservoir system, and the commissioners could obtain all required information from that.

The motion as amended was adopted.

It is evident that the commissioners now mean business, and are at work in earnest to adopt plans for the plant, which will meet with the approval of all. The majority of the commissioners, if not all of them, appear to favor the reservoir system, but the cost of constructing the reservoir being so much greater, the direct pressure plan will undoubtedly be adopted. This question settled, and the plan approved of by the common council, the commencement of the work will not necessarily be delayed many weeks.

—They were talking about the crops, when neighbor C. ——, who, by the way, is a most excellent gardner, and can show the slickest one-half acre of gardening in town, remarked: "Talk about corn,—you ought to see my garden; why, my corn grew six inches last night." One of the party ventured to remark that "that would be devilish big corn by the 4th"; and his eyes seemed to measure the height of the ceiling, which was 12 feet, as though in doubt. "Oh, that is nothing," continued friend C.——; down in Kansas it is no uncommon thing to see corn—whole fields of it—standing 18 feet high; and it is no trick to get lost in it, I can tell you, just as easily as you could in the woods." "Well, how do you get at the ears," questioned another. "Oh, they stand up on horseback, and sometimes they wait for a small cyclone to come along when the crop is very heavy."
